

APPC

Asian-Pacific Postal College

Educate - Inspire - Motivate

Terminal Dues Workshop

19th August to 22nd August 2019

The Terminal Dues Workshop will be specially focussed on the outcomes and Agreements arrived at the in the UPU Congress at Istanbul that have a bearing on the Terminal Dues Cycle for 2018-21 and the new forms and Documentation associated with Accounting will also be covered. In addition the rationale behind Terminal Dues calculation , proposed changes and some hands on work on the TD Impact Assessment Tool will be covered in this workshop which will include Site visits. The remuneration issues in Integrated Product Plan will also be discussed.

Session	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
AM	Remuneration for letter-post items	Istanbul Congress resolution	Transit Mails Accounting	TD Impact Assessment tool	Revision Mechanism & Sampling
PM	New Definition of letter -post	Settlement of Accounts	Visit to Mail Center	Transition to target system	Quality of Service TD Remuneration

Ms. Yu Yan started her postal career in 1995, entered into the International Business Department in EMS China. From 2003 to 2004, she worked at the International Bureau of UPU, as the project manager of EMS Unit, specializing in the Improver Program. Her previous position before joining the APPU was the Director of the Express Management Division at the Market Supervision Department, State Post Bureau of China (P.R). Ms. Yu have strong desire and enthusiasm, to build the experience and thoughts that she have learned into the training material, to help member countries in the Asia-Pacific region to better meet the demand of customers.

APPU

Asian-Pacific Postal Union

taking posts into the future

