Australia Post

Australia

A candidate for the Postal Operations Council and Council of Administration for 2026 – 2029.

Australia's Postal Sector

---

- Australia is an island nation that is also a continent.
- Australia's postal sector connects Australians with each other and the world.
- Australia Post is over 200 years old and a source of national pride.

Australia's Postal Network

---

- We have more than 200 cultures and 300 languages within our borders.
- Australia is home to communities who have come from all over the world, including from every Asia-Pacific country.
- The postal sector is essential to connect people.

Australia in the Asia-Pacific

- We value the diversity of UPU membership.
- We have used our voice at the UPU to try to achieve considered compromise that supports global uplift of the postal sector.
- We have actively supported and advocated for our region at the UPU, including sharing our expertise and building capability.
- We understand the importance of the Asia-Pacific region to the global postal network.
- We have partnered across the Pacific to uplift operational capabilities.

What we have achieved

- During the Abidjan Cycle, Australia is chairing the POC's Operations, Accounting and Review Group.
- We have worked to support changes to the UPU's product suite and remuneration systems.
- We want to drive international postal services that are inclusive, integrated and sustainable.
- We have supported using the postal network to achieve the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.

Why elect Australia

- Australia wants to ensure that postal services remain relevant into the future.
- We work closely with the UPU and APPU member countries to share operational and modernisation insights.
- We want to continue this work, as an active and pragmatic voice at the UPU.
- We will continue to progress the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, including gender and climate.
