Update of 27th Universal Postal Congress

The 27th Universal Postal Congress is taking place in Abidjan, Côte d'Ivoire, 9-27 August 2021 reaffirmed by an exception virtual meeting of the Council of Administration.

For the very first time in its 146-year history, the Universal Postal Union (UPU) is introducing a hybrid approach to the 27th Congress with members being able to attend in person, or by joining via a virtual platform set up by the UPU's International Bureau.

The approach is similar to working methods agreed for the two UPU councils since October 2020 and is being adopted due to health and safety concerns, and restrictions on travel and quarantine requirements.

For a hybrid approach to be adopted, the Congress Rules of Procedure of Congresses will have to be adjusted to enable virtual participation. For further information, you may access the following link.
